

Alaska Coalition on Housing and Homelessness

Who We Are

The Alaska Coalition on Housing and Homelessness (AKCH2) is a statewide organization working to develop strategies to increase the availability of affordable housing and eliminate homelessness in our great state.

ALASKAHOUSING-HOMELESS.ORG

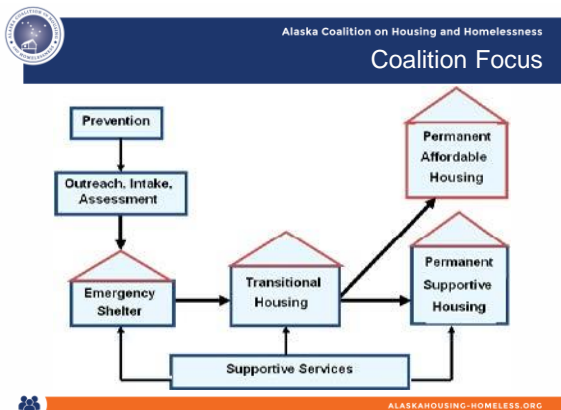

Alaska Coalition on Housing and Homelessness

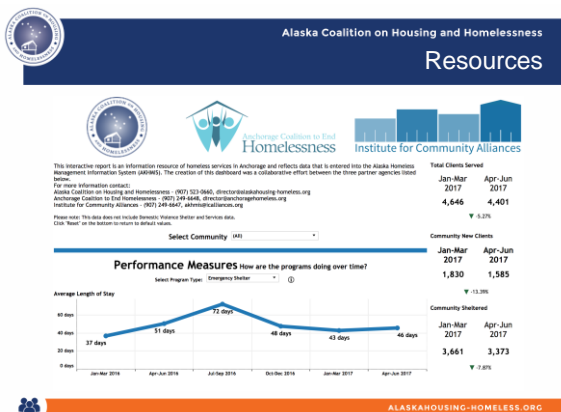

Key Partnerships

- Alaska Housing Finance Corporation
- Alaska Mental Health Trust Authority
- Institute for Community Alliances
- Alaska Department of Health and Social Services
- HUD Field Office
- Governor's Council on Homeless
- Anchorage Coalition to End Homelessness
- Enterprise Community Partners
- KTOO/360 North

ALASKAHOUSING-HOMELESS.ORG

Alaska Coalition on Housing and Homelessness
Big Changes Underway

Coordinated
Entry

ALASKAHOUSING-HOMELESS.ORG

Alaska Coalition on Housing and Homelessness
Housing First

ALASKAHOUSING-HOMELESS.ORG

Alaska Coalition on Housing and Homelessness
Housing First

Core Philosophies

- Homelessness should be rare, brief, and non-reoccurring
- Housing is an essential component of healthcare
- Barriers to accessing safe housing should be eliminated
 - Sobriety requirements
 - Barrier Crime Requirements
 - Participation in services
 - Income status

ALASKAHOUSING-HOMELESS.ORG

Alaska Coalition on Housing and Homelessness

Housing First

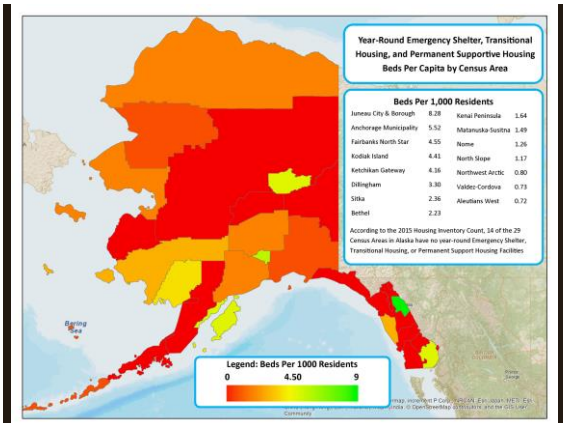

TYPICAL "HOUSING READINESS"

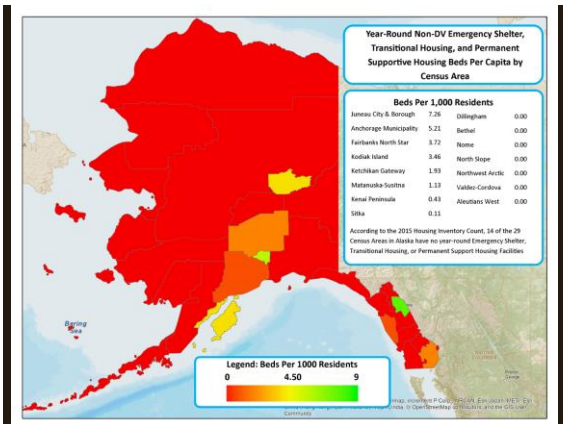

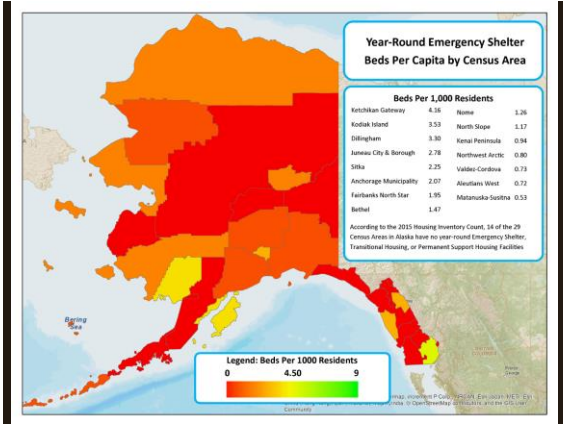

HOUSING FIRST

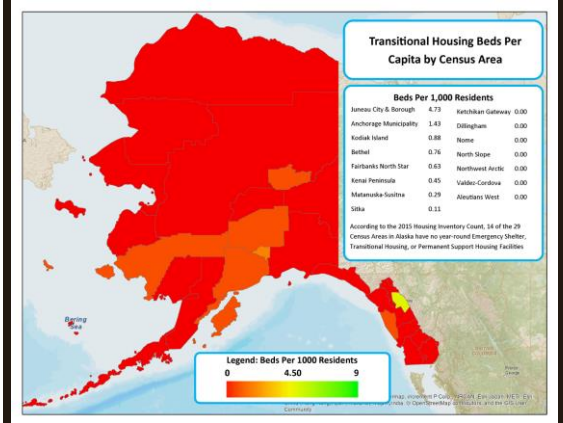

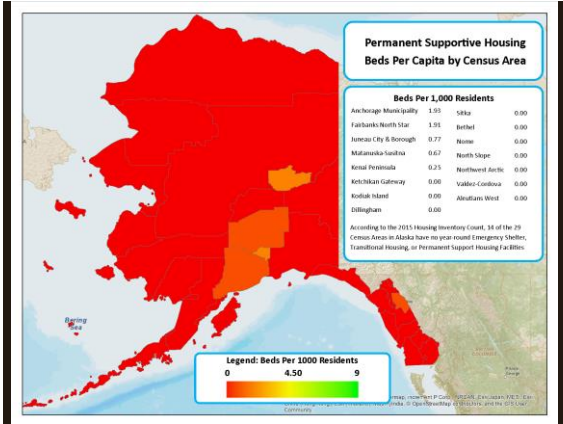

ALASKAHOUSING-HOMELESS.ORG

Opportunities

Impact of Re-Entry Housing Panelists

- Kara Nelson
– Director of Haven House
- Venus Woods
– Cook Inlet Tribal Council
- Karl Soderstrom
– Administrative Director of Fiend 2 Clean

Discussion & Questions